

Nov. 5-2010

Dear Sirs:

While discussing the ^{Thanksgiving} menu for our large family (six generations ages 2 months to 95-and at least 80 members), I asked for my part to be a baked ham - a Lee ham.

After cooking for 50 years I've tried them all and Lee is the best! Not too salty, moist, very tasty - just good.

Thank you for a quality product. In this time of so much pressure on our food budget I'm careful about what I buy but I know I'm getting what I am proud to serve - the Lee ham.

Sincerely,
Mrs. G.S. Chandler
